

"BIG FIVE" DECREE
FILED IN COURT

Agreed-Upon Injunction Prevents Packers From Engaging in Any Unrelated Industries.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The agreed decree under which the "big five" packers are forever enjoined from engaging in any line of business other than that of handling meat and produce was filed today in the District of Columbia Supreme Court.

It was submitted by Attorney General Palmer, who said it "removes the menace of control of unrelated industries by the big five, and confines their activities in future to the business of distributing meat and its by-products."

Smaller Firms Hard Hit, in Report on First Day of Strike.

A. B. Campbell, Chairman of the Mechanical Dental Workers' Union, No. 308 East 12th Street, said today that 800 mechanical dentists went on strike this morning, or two-thirds of the total employed in this city.

The men demand a forty-four-hour week, better sanitary working conditions and a 40 per cent. increase in wages.

Smaller firms report they have been seriously affected.

FIRE RECALLS DANSEY CASE.

Home Near Spot Where Skeleton Was Found Is Destroyed.

HAMMONTON, N. J., Feb. 27.—The house formerly occupied by the family of Irving Coons on the edge of the swamp where the skeleton of little "Billy" Dansey was found last November, was destroyed by fire last night. The family moved out Monday.

Coons said he was not surprised, for he had been told that the house "would not last long" after he left it. An investigation is being made.

Wants Kauff Indictment Quashed.

Judge Otto Rosalesky in General Sessions this morning granted the application filed by Emil Puche, attorney for Benny Kauff, center field for the Giants, for leave to inspect the minutes of the grand jury which had returned an indictment charging the ballplayer with the theft of an automobile. Puche notified District Attorney Swann that he will ask for the dismissal of the indictment against Kauff on the ground of illegal and incompetent evidence.

SEIZE BOOKKEEPER
IN $25,000 SHORTAGE

Henry Levine Arrested on Charge of Robbing His Employer.

Harry Levine, thirty-four, a bookkeeper, No. 49 Division Avenue, Brooklyn, was arrested last night by Detective Campbell, on a bench warrant issued Wednesday by Judge Rosalesky, charging him with embezzlement of $450 from his former employer, Edward M. Schwabe, manufacturer of pictures, No. 242 West 14th Street.

Detective Campbell said accountants who examined the firm's books found defalcations amounting to at least $25,000.

On Jan. 15 Schwabe discovered his business was netting him no profits. He said to Levine:

"I'll have an accountant glance over the books."

The bookkeeper did not return from lunch after this conversation. Detective Campbell said. Mr. Schwabe hired him in January, 1919.

Tomorrow Your Last Chance to Share in the Wonderful Furniture Sale

Saturday evening at 9 P. M. the curtain rings down on our greatest Furniture Sale. We opened it with stocks unusually large in quantity and unusually good in value.

The reductions were liberal, very liberal—and the public response has been most generous and gratifying.

The Furniture makers are asking higher prices than ever for their new wares. In fact everything points to increased prices for the future.

We advise our patrons to save by buying now—at this sale
—when prices are lowest.

And to give them the fullest opportunity to make last-minute purchases

We Shall Keep the Furniture Sale Going Till 9 o'Clock This Friday and Saturday Evenings

Use the Main 59th Street Entrance After 6 P. M.

Boys Suits: $16.95

8 to 18 years

Only end of the season reductions bring such plums as these! Surely Mothers of active youngsters need no further urging to buy than the confidential information that prices on Boys Cloth next fall will be very much higher. Wise to buy and save as well as for immediate wear.

Suits of fancy chevrot, in light and dark shades, cut on up-to-calendar lines.

Both pairs of trousers are lined,
and that means more than that the trousers will wear well, for it is a trade secret that only the better trousers are lined.

Special Mackinaws: $12.95

Only enough for 150 lucky youngsters of the ages of 9 to 18 years.

Made of fancy plaid materials. No wide awake boy need be told that a mackinaw is the ideal knock-about top coat—and every mother knows that this is a very low price for such good, sturdy garments.
